

Scott Brown has a record of strengthening economy

We have a clear choice in the race for United States Senate. I am proudly supporting my colleague, state Sen. Scott Brown, on Jan. 19.

I have known Scott Brown for several years and have served alongside him in the Legislature. He has a clear record of cutting taxes, reforming government and fighting against waste and for common-sense policies. I am certain he will bring the same common-sense attitude to Capitol Hill as he has to Beacon Hill.

Scott has a record of strengthening our economy. He is committed to creating jobs while lowering taxes, cutting spending and stopping the outrageous policies that are piling tens of trillions in debt on our children and grandchildren. Scott has been a leader in reforming our sex-offender laws and in seeing that our veterans get the assistance and benefits they deserve.

As a 30-year member of the National Guard, Scott is the only candidate in the race with military, homeland security and foreign policy experience. In these times of war, this experience is invaluable.

I have no doubt he will be an outstanding U.S. senator. Please join me in casting a vote for Scott Brown for U.S. Senate.
